Principal News

Dear Star Families and Friends,

What a week! It has been busy filled with many activities for our students, teachers, parents, and community. The Holy Spirit is definitely in action! A great big thank you to all of our parents, grandparents, and relatives who came to our activities for Catholic Schools Week. It feels great to know that we can always count on your support! We are on the right track and working together for the better and future of our School. Have a great and safe weekend!

God Bless,

Alicia Vazquez –Principal

Our Gospel Value:

“Anyone who seeks truth seeks God, whether or not he realizes it.”
